The Copyright Act applies to materials that are part of Secwépemc Museum and Heritage Park archives, collections, and repository; this includes but is not limited to still and moving images, documents, cartographic records, sound recordings, reports, and studies. Copies provided by Secwépemc Museum and Heritage Park may only be used for the purpose of research or private study, and any use of the copy for a purpose other than research or private study requires you to obtain the authorization of the copyright owner of the work in question.

The SMHP endorses Article 31 of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous People (UNDRIP) and the Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (DRIPA). Archival material is culturally sensitive or restricted. It is your responsibility to obtain permission to use records from the community and/or cultural rights holder of the record. Please treat records with respect and consider the cultural protocols of our people and our places.
